Wetten, dass..? (English for "Wanna bet that..?") is a German-language Saturday entertainment television show. It is the largest and most successful television show in Europe.

Its format was the basis for the British show You Bet! and the American show Wanna Bet?

On 14 February 1981, the German channel ZDF broadcast the first episode in cooperation with the Austrian broadcaster ORF and the Swiss channel SF DRS as a Eurovision network show. The inventor of the show, Frank Elstner, hosted the show until its 39th episode in 1987.

Wetten, dass..? has since been hosted by entertainer Thomas Gottschalk.

The core gimmick of the show was the bets: ordinary people offer to perform some unusual (often bizarre) and difficult tasks.

Between the bets and the celebrity smalltalk, there were musical performances by top-ranking artists like Shania Twain, Johnny Cash, Phil Collins, Take That, Jennifer Lopez, Coldplay, OneRepublic, Rihanna, Spice Girls, Kiss, t.A.T.u., Whitney Houston, Katy Perry, Madonna, Kylie Minogue, Anastacia, Avril Lavigne, Christina Stürmer, Bryan Adams, Shakira, Britney Spears, Scorpions, Bon Jovi, Meat Loaf, Elton John, Tokio Hotel, Justin Bieber, Miley Cyrus, Ashley Tisdale, Joe Cocker, Lady Gaga, Luciano Pavarotti, Celine Dion, Christina Aguilera, Mariah Carey, Robert Plant, Status Quo, Leona Lewis, David Bowie, Bruno Mars, Cher, Tina Turner, Depeche Mode and Michael Jackson.
